A Word of Advice to Stage Drivers.—There is perhaps no class of men who are subject to more abuse than the drivers of omnibuses; and, like other public personages in elevated positions, they are expected to endure it without retaliating. They are certainly not infallible, and occasionally do some things which had better be left without retaliating. They are certainly not infallible and occasionally do some things which had better be left without expected to remorselessly upon their adverted heads, we would give them a little advice, in a quiet way, which they may find it to their advantage to follow. In the first place, their passengers do not like to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant to be put down in the midat of mud and fillt; it is very ant fellow when they are about getting out of the streets, it may be very well to do this in all cases where said passengers have forgotten to pay their fare; but under no other circumstances is the driver justified in closing the door use and the middle of the stage passing on before she could us that she way placed in very unpleasant predicament the other day by this practer, in her endeavors to get out of the half closed door, a portion of her dress was caught in it, and the stage passing on before she could extricate herself, she was bangged along several feet through the dirty street. Briefly, then, we would say to stage drivers

FIRE IN NORTH MOORE STREET.—Last night about eleven Polock, a fire broke out in the upper story of Brown's arge marble factory, occupying the block bounded by Tranklin, North Moore, Washington and West streets this is partly in the Eighth and partly in the Third fire districts, owing to which the firemen were at first somewhat puzzled to find the place. The fire broke out in the upper story, but from what cause we could not learn. It ras put out before it had reached beyond the story in thich it originated, doing about $5,000 damage. The stablishment is said to be fully insured.

THE RESTELL ABORTION CASE.

Since the disappearance of Miss Grant vigilant and active measures have been taken by the magistrate in earder to ascertain her whereabouts. Several affidavits have been taken, which in their tendency very conciliatively discloses the parties engaged in the abduction of Miss Grant. Several houses have been searched by the pelice, and among them the house of one of the defendants, but without finding the witness. The magistrate, however, is not without hope of yet discovering the whereabouts of the witness, and when having her again within his jurisdiction, it is very doubtful if she again escapes until liberated by the authorities. All the evidence pending against parties accused of being concerned in the abduction will be submitted to the Grand Jury for consideration; and it is more than likely indictments will be found against some of them. Justice Stuart wishes it to be particularly understood that he has not dismissed the complaint against Madame Restell and George R. Shackford. The defendants are merely discharged from under arrest.

AN ATTACK OF ROWDIES ON A PORTERHOUSE, ONE OF THE ASSAILANTS SHOT IN THE ARM.

At about 12 o'clock yesterday noon, a party of young men entered the public house kept by Thomas Rice, at the corner of Madison and Catharine streets, and demanded drinks of Morris Malony, the bartender. The bartender, observing them to be already strongly under the influence of liquor, refused to let them have any. The rowdies on being refused, became very riotous, and declared they would have drinks, and would also play a game at bagatelle; the bartender attempted to prevent them, when he was instantly assaulted and beaten, and a general smashing was commenced by the rowdies on the tumblers and decanters Mr. Rice, the proprietor of the house, was up stairs sick in bed, but where the industry of the house, was up stairs sick in bed, but hearing the disturbance he came down to the barrowd, party, inflicting a desperad, became very indoous, and the la

The boys on their arrest acknowledged their guilt, and some of the stolen articles were found secreted in a cellar where two of the boys resided; the other articles of clothing were scovered from a pawneboker's office, they having been pawned by the boys, and the money thus obtained from the pawnbroker was divided between them. Justice Clarke committed the boys to prison for trial.

To the Advertising Public.

The season of business is now approaching, and adver.

To persons in trade, and to advertisers of all kinds, such a channel of circulation is the ready way to success in Hfc. The HERALD'S prices for advertising, considering the vast circulation of the journal, are more reasonable, though apparently higher, than the rates exacted from by any other establishment in New York. From the simple statement of these facts the public in judge for themselves in all advertising matters.

ASTIMA CURED.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1833.

For about eight years I have been very severely afflicted with the asthma; for the last two years I have suffered be yond all my powers of description; menths at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sit ting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing and my sufferings were so great at times that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of fortune to procure Dr. Curtis' hygeans or inhaling hygean vapor and cherry syrup. At the time I first obtained it I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost sufficiating for want of breath. In was refleved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the cherry syrup, was televed in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it wish the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medities, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and an

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AT A MEFTING OF THE MEMBERS OF SHELTON'S A American Brass Band, held on the Sth inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted.

Whereas, it has been the will of Divine Providence to take from our midst our worthy and much admired leader, Mr. James Shelton, thus depriving uses a man much respected and beloved we, the members of this Band, take this method of expressing our sympathy to the begraved widow as noendelencefor the irreparable loss she has suntained. We need not speak of his virtues—to all that knew him he was both penerous and kind; and we, the members of his land, feel it a duty to cherish his memory for the many happy associations we have had together which he was meng us; therefore,
Resolved. That we sympathize most deeply with Mrs. Shelton and family, also with the relativos and risunds of our truly beloved leader in the loss they have sustained.
Resolved. That to Colonel Peers, of the Sixth Regiment, Governor's Guard, and the officers and members of his command, our especial thanks are due, for the beautiful manner in which they paraded to escert the remains of our worthy leader to their final resting place; also to Captain Darrow, and the officers and members of his company of Washington Continentals, for the respect shown by them to our late leader, by parading as part of the escort on that mouriful occasion; also to Capt. Helme, his officers and men, for acting as mourners in the funeral cortege.

Resolved, That to Mr. T. Adkins, and the members of his Band, we owe a debt of gratitude for the very gentlemanly manner in which they came forward and volunteered their valuable services to our Band on that solenn occasion; also to Mr. Stewart, and the members of his (the Brocklyn)Band, for the gratuitous services furnished by them to our resement (the Sixth) on the day of the funeral. The members of the Metropolitan Band will please also receive our sinceres thanks for the respect shown by them to our late leader, by parading in a bedy as mournors in the funeral procession.

AT A MEETING OF PHEENIX HOSE COMPANY
No. 22, the following resolutions were unanimously acopted:

Whereas, Our late foreman, Mr. Walter S. Pinckney, has found it expedient for his personal interest to withdraw from the active position of a freman, and indulgs in the retirement afforded by a residence removed from the noisy bustle of a city like ours; and whereas, by long association, we, as members of such company, have become united in feeling and sympathy, and agree that an expression of our sentiments should publicly be made to him; therefore, be it Resolved, That Phomix Hose Company No. 22 herewith tender their sincere and hearty thanks to Walter S. Pinckney, Eq., for his urbane and gentlemanly deportment, his kind and courteous demeanor, and his untiring and effective endeavors, while engaged in the discharge of the duties and responsibilities devolving upon him as our superior officer, to render our labors pleasant and our task agreeable.

Resolved, That our past associations, the influence excreted and example afforded by his advice and admonttion, will ever continue to incite us to a faithful discharge of a discerning community.

Resolved, That though we may continue active members will ever continue to the parameter of the parameter voluntary duty which has over received the parameter of the community.

Recolved, That though we may continue active members of this organization, and he separate by distance from him whom we have learned and delight to along and love, our former connection with him, and our distril associations, shall ever be continued fresh in our memories; and while he may be absent in body, he will ever be "present in spirit," and we sincerely trust that he may ever be prosperous, and surrounded by dementic comforts, long enjoying the inspiries to which he, by his previous kindness, is justly entitled. Recolved, That he above re-olutions be published in the Herald and Sunday Mercury.
